Whereas in its decision dated 17th June 2015 the Committee determined that the property factor had failed to comply with the Code of Conduct for Property Factors, and it determined to issue a Property Factor Enforcement Order (PFO) and the required notice of the proposed PFO was given to parties in terms of Section 19(2) of the Act on 22nd June 2015 and neither party having made representations now therefore the Committee Hereby Makes the following Property Factors Enforcement Order:

That the property factor makes a payment to the homeowner of £250 in respect of compensation and in recognition of the inconvenience experienced by the homeowner.

Payment must be made within twenty one days of service of this property factor enforcement order upon the property factor.

Failure to comply with a property factor enforcement order may have serious consequences and may constitute an offence.

(2) an appeal against subsection (1) must be made within the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the decision appealed against is made...."
