Re: 83C Tower Drive, Gourock PA19 1TD

Parties:

Mr Gary Millar (the homeowner)
Riverclyde Homes (the property factor)

Decision

After careful consideration of the homeowner's application in terms of rule 8 of the 2017 rules, I have decided that the application should be rejected.

Reasons for the decision and grounds for rejection

I have considered the application in terms of Rule 8 of the 2017 rules. Rule 8 provides as follows:

Rejection of application

- 8.—(1) The Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, must reject an application if—
- (a) they consider that the application is frivolous or vexatious;
 - (b) the dispute to which the application relates has been resolved;
 - (c) they have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application;

- (d) they consider that the application is being made for a purpose other than a purpose specified in the application; or
 - (e) the applicant has previously made an identical or substantially similar application and in the opinion of the Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, there has been no significant change in any material considerations since the identical or substantially similar application was determined.
- (2) Where the Chamber President, or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, makes a decision under paragraph (1) to reject an application the First-tier Tribunal must notify the applicant and the notification must state the reason for the decision.

Letters/emails were sent to you on 29 August, 13 September and 8 October 2019, asking for further information regarding your application to the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber).

Since no response has been received to any of these letters/emails, I consider that the dispute to which the application relates has been resolved and I have therefore decided to reject your application under Rule 8 (b) of the 2017 rules.

For the reasons stated above, your application is rejected.

What you should do now

If you accept the Convener's decision, there is no need to reply.

If you disagree with this decision –

A party aggrieved by the decision of the Chamber President or the Convener may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them. Information about the appeal procedure can be forwarded to you on request.

Yours sincerely

Sarah O'Neill
Convener
Legal member of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber)
